

A Career in LIBRARY & INFORMATION SCIENCE

An investment that pays for itself.

Today's librarians do things that might surprise you:

- Provide information NOT found on the web
- Host video game nights
- Digitize photos, video and manuscripts
- Design and build websites
- Post videos on YouTube
- Offer computer and internet training
- Monitor emerging technology
- Build libraries and train librarians in Kosovo, Vietnam, or Nicaragua
- And more....

*Join Simmons College* at a convenient location to explore graduate studies in library and information science.*
